1. Click on the Start button, and then click on the Control Panel
2. Select “Network and Internet Connections”

3. Select “Network Connections”

4. Right mouse click on your Wireless Connection and left mouse click on properties
5. Click on the Wireless Networks tab

!Wireless Network Connection Properties

6. Click on the Add button under Preferred networks:

7. Enter the below information on the Association tab
   a. Network Name (SSID): WCC-Secure
   b. Network Authentication: WPA2
c. Data Encryption: AES

8. Click on the Authentication tab, Change the EAP type from Smart Card or other Certificate to Protected EAP(PEAP).
9. Uncheck Authenticate as computer when computer information is available.

10. Click the properties button.

12. Uncheck Validate Server Certificate

13. Click on the Configure button under Select Authentication Method

14. Unselect the check box for “Automatically use my Windows logon name and password (and domain if any).”

15. Click OK

16. Click OK

17. Click OK on the “Wireless network properties”
18. A pop-up will appear in the system tray.

19. Click on the balloon window

20. A Enter Credential Windows will open; enter your X-Number in the “User name:” box and your mywcc/network password in the “Password:” box

21. Click OK
22. You should now be connected the secure wireless network