Clayton Muhammad
Commencement Speaker

Clayton Muhammad has served as the Chief Spokesman of Aurora, Illinois, the second-largest city in Illinois, for more than a dozen years.

An award-winning public relations professional, he has been affectionately dubbed “The Voice of Aurora.” His deep roots in the city, where he was born and raised, are evident in his decade-long service as spokesman and his role as host/emcee at over 1,000 events over the past twenty-five years.

As a former educator, Clayton Muhammad’s leadership was instrumental in his decade-long tenure as the spokesman of East Aurora School District 131. His efforts led to the successful passage of a $32 million referendum.

In 2002, after a summer of violence in Aurora, Muhammad founded Boys II Men, Inc. This leadership development initiative has graduated hundreds of young men who have gone on to college, have had successful careers, and have held elected offices, including City of Aurora aldermen and Aurora Township trustees.

Muhammad attended the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and Lewis University, and has been a frequent presenter and keynote speaker at schools, colleges, universities, churches, and at local, regional and national conferences.

He is the recipient of more than 100 awards and recognitions, including the Mentor of the Year Award presented by Aur-City United, a group of hip-hop artists in Aurora, the City of Aurora’s African American Leader of the Year Award, the Kane County Citizen of the Year Award, the Central Region Community Service Award from Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., and the Midwest Community Leader of the Year Award presented by his beloved Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.
