Waubonsee Community College’s Art Department presents:

Skyway Selections
Spring 2020
Skyways Selections is an annual exhibition that the Waubonsee Community College Art Department produces. It is a result of the Skyway call for art. Each year the guest juror, known as the Waubonsee Juror, blind-juries the entries and selects 35 artworks. This year, our Waubonsee Juror Cynthia Hellyer Heinz, Associate Professor of Art, Northern Illinois University, selected 25 artworks to represent Waubonsee in the next level of the Illinois Skyway Collegiate Conference Juried Art Competition, as well as 10 runners-up. Whenever possible, all 35 artworks are displayed together in the Skyway Selections exhibit. Due to the COVID-19 outbreak and subsequent closure of the Waubonsee campuses (as part of the state wide stay at home order) this digital catalog represents the Skyway Selections 2020 exhibit.

A big thank you to the following individuals:

All of the students that submitted their artwork for consideration. We acknowledge the hard work and progress you’ve made in your artwork. We value your participation and we encourage you to continue pursuing your goals!

Our Waubonsee Juror Cynthia Hellyer Heinz for her expertise, her eye on equity, and for making the tough decisions in selecting these 35 artworks.

All the faculty for the teaching that they do, evidenced in the development of student’s work. For supporting Skyway by encouraging and guiding their students to submit entries to the call for art.

Dr. Mary Tosch for her support of all of our Skyway projects.

Martine Stuckey and Cecilia L. Vargas for their co-coordinating of the internal jurying process.

Tonya Whitlock for image reproduction.

Janice Rodriguez, Jackie Gramillo, and Rowan Thornton for distributing promotion, art handling, and framing the artworks that would have been featured in the Todd Library on the Sugar Grove Campus.

Note: Artworks selected by the Waubonsee Juror were considered for inclusion in this year’s Horizons, a literary magazine run by the student’s in the Waubonsee Creative Writing Club.
